Commuters get road safety tips

TNN | Oct 5, 2015, 02.04PM IST

INDORE: As many as 150 volunteers of Bhumi - a non-profitable organization helped the police man traffic at major city crossings on Sunday. Two groups were formed and members helped the traffic police at Mhow Naka, Palasia, Regal crossings and MTH compound.

"We educated the commuters on the use of zebra crossing and risks of drunken driving. Placards and banners with messages like 'When insects can follow certain rules for lane why could not we 'Humans' follow', Lane driving safe driving', 'Youngsters below 18 should not drive' and 'Stop texting while driving were there to spread awareness," said an engineering student Shivam Shrivastav.

"Our campaign was inspired by 'Kunwar group,' which help city traffic police manage affairs every weekend. We learnt the basics on handling traffic prior to the campaign," said Shrivastav.
